After 30 years as a wife and mother, an empty nester retreats to Cape Cod rather than follow her relocated husband to Kansas. Intent to rediscover herself but plagued with guilt, she questions her decision until stumbling upon a spirited mentor. Supported by her literary agent and a host of locals, including a sexy fisherman, our heroine learns to embrace the ebb and flow of life--ultimately discovering the balance between self and sacrifice, obligation and desire. Based on the New York Times best-selling memoir by Joan Anderson. (NR 114 min.)

Norman:

The Moderate Rise and Fall of a New York Fixer

May 26 - June 8

Norman Oppenheimer (Richard Gere) is a small time operator who befriends a young politician at a low point in his life. Three years later, when the politician becomes an influential world leader, Norman's life dramatically changes for better and worse. (R 111 min.)

My Cousin Rachel

June 9 - 22

A young Englishman plots revenge against his mysterious, beautiful cousin, believing that she murdered his guardian. But his feelings become complicated as he finds himself falling under the beguiling spell of her charms. Starring Rachel Weisz as Rachel. (PG-13)

Maudie

MAUDIE, based on a true story, is an unlikely romance in which the reclusive Everett Lewis (Ethan Hawke) hires a fragile yet determined woman named Maudie (Sally Hawkins) to be his housekeeper. Maudie, bright-eyed but hunched with crippled hands, yearns to be independent, to live away from her protective family and she also yearns, passionately, to create art. Unexpectedly, Everett finds himself falling in love. MAUDIE charts Everett's efforts to protect himself from being hurt, Maudie's deep and abiding love for this difficult man and her surprising rise to fame as a folk painter. (PG-13)

Michelangelo: Love and Death

June 13 ~ 7PM

June 19 ~ 1PM

To coincide with a glorious new exhibition at the National Gallery of London, this film offers a full and fresh biography of Michelangelo. This film explores his relationship with his contemporaries and his immense artistic practice that included painting, sculpture and architecture. Among the works explored are the universally adored David in Florence, the Sistine Chapel in Rome and the Manchester Madonna. This major new film goes to the heart of just who was this tempestuous, passionate giant of art history. (90 min.)

Every Tuesday early matinee will be shown in open captions (the words will appear on the screen during the film)

Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf

Thursday, May 18 ~ 2PM

In the early hours of the morning on the campus of an American college, Martha, (Gypsy, Vera Drake) much to her husband George's (Game Of Thrones) displeasure, has invited the new professor (Luke Treadaway Fortitude, The Hollow Crown) and and his wife (Imogen Poots A Long Way Down, Jane Eyre) to their home for some after-party drinks. As the alcohol flows and dawn approaches, the young couple are drawn into George and Martha's toxic games until the evening reaches its climax in a moment of devastating truth-telling. Live. 3 hrs.

Salomé

Thursday, June 22 ~ 2PM

This charged retelling turns the infamous biblical tale on its head, placing the girl we call Salomé at the centre of a revolution. Internationally acclaimed theatre director Yaël Farber (Les Blancs) draws on multiple accounts to create her urgent, hypnotic production on the stage of the National Theatre. Live. 3 hrs.

Peter Pan

Saturday, June 10

All children, except one, grow up...

This summer, JM Barrie's much-loved tale takes flight. When Peter Pan, leader of the Lost Boys, loses his shadow during a visit to London, headstrong Wendy (Madeleine Worrall, Jane Eyre) helps him reattach it. In return she is invited to Neverland – where Tinker Bell the fairy, Tiger Lily and the vengeful Captain Hook (Anna Francolini, wonder.land), await.

Angels in America

Part one - July 20 ~ 2PM

Part two - July 27 ~ 2PM

America in the mid-1980s. In the midst of the AIDS crisis and a conservative Reagan administration, New Yorkers grapple with life and death, love and sex, heaven and hell. Andrew Garfield (Silence, Hack-saw Ridge) plays Prior Walter alongside a cast including Denise Gough (People, Places and Things), Nathan Lane (The Producers), and Russell Tovey (The Pass). This new staging of Tony Kushner's multi-award-winning two-part play is directed by Olivier and Tony Award® winning director Marianne Elliott (The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time and War Horse).
