Polina (Anastasia Shevtsova), a professional dancer who has performed with Saint Petersburg's Mariinsky Theatre) is a promising classical ballet dancer. She is just about to join the prestigious Bolshoi Ballet when she discovers contemporary dance, a revelation that throws everything into question on a profound level. Diverting from her plan, she moves to France to work with famous choreographer Liria Elsjaj (Academy Award winner Juliette Binoche). But once there she is quickly forced to grapple with the realization that determination and hard work don't always lead to success. (NR 112 min.)

Marie Curie: The Courage of Knowledge

September 15 — 21

Fri. - Tues.: 4:30 & 7:00 Wed. & Thurs.: 7:00

A short time after being the first woman to receive the Nobel Prize for Physics, Marie Curie (Karolina Gruszka) loses her husband Pierre (Charles Berling). In a world dominated by men, she continues her research alone, and is the first woman to receive a chair at the Sorbonne in Paris. Shortly thereafter, she begins an affair with scientist Paul Langevin (Arieh Worthalter), and just as soon as it becomes known that she is receiving her second Nobel Prize, the Paris press publishes correspondence between Marie and Paul. Amid her professional fame, Curie is now the target of defamation, as she must bitterly learn that reason and passion are not compatible. (NR 100min.)

Special Premiere Screening Oct. 5th at 7PM

The extraordinary true story of an unexpected friendship in the later years of Queen Victoria's (Judi Dench). When Abdul Karim (Ali Fazal), a young clerk, travels from India to participate in the Queen's Golden Jubilee, he is surprised to find favor with the Queen herself. As the Queen questions the constrictions of her long-held position, the two forge an unlikely and devoted alliance and the Queen begins to see a changing world through new eyes and joyfully reclaims her humanity. (PG -13 106 min.)

Goodbye Christopher Robin

Goodbye Christopher Robin gives a rare glimpse into the relationship between beloved children's author A. A. Milne and his son Christopher Robin, whose toys inspired the magical world of Winnie the Pooh. Along with his mother Daphne, and his nanny Olive (Kelly Macdonald), Christopher Robin and his family are swept up in the international success of the books; the enchanting tales bringing hope and comfort to England after the First World War. But with the eyes of the world on Christopher Robin, what will the cost be to the family? (PG 107 min.)

by Simon Stone after Federico García Lorca

The incredible Billie Piper (Penny Dreadful, Great Britain) returns in her Evening Standard Best Actress award-winning role. A young woman is driven to the unthinkable by her desperate desire to have a child in Simon Stone's radical production of Lorca's achingly powerful masterpiece. Set in contemporary London, Piper's portrayal of a woman in her thirties desperate to conceive builds with elemental force to a staggering, shocking, climax. (2 hrs.)
